Control panel

7- Click the start menu and it will be on the right-hand side of the menu.

8- Go to settings and it will be on the bottom left-hand side of the screen.

10- go to the search bar next to the tart menu and look up control panel.

Advanced systems properties

7- Click the start menu, go to control panel, system and security, system, and at the top left you can select advanced systems properties.

8- Click the start menu, go to control panel, system and security, system, and at the top left you can select advanced systems properties.

10- Click the start menu, go to control panel, system and security, system, and at the top left you can select advanced systems properties.

Windows Explorer

7- Right click on the start menu and click windows explorer.

8- Right click on the start menu and click file explorer.

10- Right click on the start menu and click file explorer.

Mouse properties

7- Go to control panel, click ease of access, click ease of access center, and click change how your mouse works.

8- Go to settings, click PC and devices, and select mouse and touchpad.

10- Go to settings, click devices, and click mouse.

Similarities

1- Getting to advanced systems properties
2- The desktop
3- The taskbar

Differences

1- The start menu layout.
2- The settings have different layouts and different names, and Windows 7 does not have settings.
3- The apps that come with the OS.